GOMPERS TO AID IN WAGE DISPUTE

Arrives in Chicago to Testify in Behalf of Stockyards Employees.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, arrived in Chicago today to testify in behalf of the employees' side in the stockyards' wage arbitration. He is to be one of the chief witnesses for the men and will, it is said, plead for adoption of the basic eight hour day and higher wages for the employees of the packing industry.

Permission was granted to representatives of the meat cutters' unions' representatives at Sioux City and Omaha to inspect the packing plants at those cities today.

William Farr, general superintendent of Morris & company, was the first witness in today's proceedings. He said he started with the company 23 years ago as an employee. He read a table of statistics showing the wages paid the various classes of labor in the various plants which he said were in line with the pay of men and women performing similar work in other lines of industry.
